A brand new history
Slyly and quickly
Sparkles in your eyes
Hope your not missing
The flash points, sign posts
Etching the future, from here

Ancient ancestors transmitting
Via pool formed from rainfall
Where my reflection
Stares back at me and says

As the sun sets bright over ancient earth
And disappears from view
The spirit of the world
Will rise up from the dis again

Our voices sing in union
Lifeless, soulless, secret abyss
Plotting the worlds doom
Production and consumption
Wakes the sleeping world to sing again
Our voices sing in union

From African Coasts
To Australian Mainland
Watch your brothers back
Watch your sisters back

From the American Plains
To the Sea of Japan
Watch your brothers back
Watch your sisters back

In your own backyard
Or far off foreign lands
We find our adversaries
Woven of the same thread

As evil hacks and rips
At every corner of the world
The peoples voice will sing as one voice

Our voices sing in union

To implement a Paul Hawken Esque
Model for the world
The people voice will sing as one voice
Our voices sing in union

The Arabian Sea
To the Coast of Chile
Watch your brothers back

The Plateau of Tibet
To the Bay of Biscay
Watch your brothers back

In your own backyard

Re-think, fucking dig in
Don't sit by and take it
They built it we can break it
We're not gonna stand for any G.A. double T's

Don't sit by and take it

Don't sit by and take it

Don't sit by and take it
