Who would Jesus bomb? Yeah, who would Jesus kill?
The double talk is past surreal
The word of god is now the word of hate
War is peace, and freedom is the police state
Can't you see the writing on the wall?
Democracy lays trampled on the floor

You better believe that
Hell yeah, I'm confused for sure
What I thought was the New Millennium is 1984
Mr. Orwell from the grave, adding fresh ink to the page
As the unpresident declares an endless war
Welcome to 1984

Feels like Nazi Germany and Hitler on TV
As the unpresident spews homophobic speech
Didn't the allies fight a war to end extremist fascist law
So tell me now what are the fuck we fighting for?

I just can not take it anymore
Democracy lays trampled on the floor
Man, isn't freedom great

Hell yeah, I'm confused for sure
What I thought was the New Millennium is 1984
Mr. Orwell from the grave, adding fresh ink to the page
As the unpresident declares an endless war

Now we've got armies of peace, armed to the teeth
Delivering death to make the world a better place
So celebrate the weapons spending, say a toast to Armageddon
Raise some hell, we're all headed straight to hell

Hell yeah, I'm confused for sure
What I thought was the New Millennium is 1984
Mr. Orwell from the grave, adding fresh ink to the page
As the unpresident declares an endless war
Welcome to 1984
