Last night I turned my TV on and I couldn't believe what was on

Some fucking rich kid crying cause her, her boy friend left her cold

To make us feel sorry for some fucking millionaire? well why the fuck is this shit playing over the air?

As he stops and thinks of all the "poor suckers" he screwed

Well I was getting pissed and I was getting mad, I took a chair and smashed it right into the set controls your mind it fills your, head with crap!

Some fucking businessman is crying "Boo-fucking-hoo..."

Well I said, Fuck this propaganda, fuck the news, it just You'll scream tonight, so throw it away

You'll scream tonight, so stay away, stay away

It's a commercial about some Barbie type clone blond She's six foot four and only weighs one hundred pounds

They sell her body and her self esteem out loud

she looks so natural like a fucking starving child

Some old man sits there drooling at this fucking smut

"If she'd take off her shirt well, now that would be good luck!"

He can't remember, "But she sure had killer legs..."

"What was she advertising for anyways?"

He's got a hard on now and that's just, fucking, "Great news" Degrading womyn well it's, nothing new,
