You were everything to me
I don't think you even realize
How bad it hurts to love
Someone who pushes you aside
I guess I had to walk away
For something change

For all the times you made me cry
I felt scared and sick inside
You looked past my misery
You didn't feel anything
For every night you came home late
Too damn drunk to stand up straight
I could feel my stomach sink
But you couldn't feel anything
Now I sit here and watch you cry
You come back to apologize
I can see you suffering
But I don't feel anything

You swear that you're gonna be
Everything I've needed all this time
You'll make it up to me
If I give you one more time try
You're telling me what I wanna hear
But I'm too numb to care

For all the times you made me cry
I felt scared and sick inside
You looked past my misery
You didn't feel anything
For every night you came home late
Too damn drunk to stand up straight
I could feel my stomach sink
But you couldn't feel anything
Now I sit here and watch you cry
You come back to apologize
I can see you suffering
But I don't feel anything
Don't feel anything

You won't ever see me cry
Feel scared or sick inside
There ain't no misery
Cause I don't feel anything
I don't feel anything

For every night you came home late
Too damn drunk to stand up straight
I could feel my stomach sink
But you couldn't feel anything
Now I sit here and watch you cry
I can see you suffering
I don't feel anything
I don't feel anything
No, I don't feel anything
I don't feel anything
I don't feel
