There's a levee behind my eyes
And it's about to break.
I'm sick of listenin' to everyone talk
I'm smilin' but it's fake
They all think they know what's best well they don't
I'm fine on my own
Is it really that hard to see
Right now all I need is

A little me time
A little room to breathe time
A little sprawled out on a blanket in the park
With a good book free time
I need a little me time

I'll throw my hair in a pony tail
Put on my ripped up blue jeans
Take a walk and breathe some fresh air
And only stop for coffee
Nowhere to be, No schedule to keep
Lose the routine, Yea just turn off the phone
I wanna be alone for

A little me time
A little room to breathe time
A little sprawled out on a blanket in the park
With a good book free time
I need a little me time
A little calm relaxin'
Don't want any distractions free time
I need a little me time

So let my head clear
Cry a few cleansing tears
Let everything melt away
I'm only askin' for one day
Some me time
A little room to breathe time
A little sprawled out on a blanket in the park
With a good book free time
I need a little me time

Oh me time
A little room to breathe time
Give me some me time
