In a dream
You and I
Laughing together
Could it be, always this way
Promises
Happiness
Loving forever
Shouldn't we, start it today?

You said, "knock and the door to my heart will open"
I said, "I'm just too nervous to try"

CHORUS
Because you and I are angels
And we're learning how to fly
We're stumbling around
With our feet on the ground
Longing for the sky

Here we are
Suddenly
Facing each other
Both of us wanting to stay
Reaching out, for you, I
Feel so uncertain
Funny how love gets in the way

You said, "ask and the love that you need will follow"
I said, "now I am ready to try"

CHORUS

Angels (echo) x2
You said, "knock and the door to my heart will open"
I said, "now I am ready to try"

CHORUS x2
