I could try to say I'm sorry
But then won't be quite enough
To get you know pain that I feel
And it just won't let...
Oh, it feels like the sky is falling
And the clouds, clouds are falling in
When I lose control, when it all begin.

Chorus:
Please, forgive my heart,
Cause not that the problems
lies anywhere in there
I'm a liar, I'm in a dream
Going my way, nothing to rely on

From the dumb silent weakness
To the blindness of the night
And we see reflexions so clear
And the blush, blush of the morning light
Hmmm time it can pass so slowly
When you face the burden down
The term is not...

Chorus: (x2)
Please, forgive my heart,
Cause not that the problems
lies anywhere in there
I'm a liar, I'm in a dream
Going my way, nothing to rely on Uh, oh, oh
