"Hear The Earth"

Scarcely breathing silence
Slowly running out of patience
I know that you want her only
So obscured and lonely

Hear the earth and feel the sun
Who is the unfortunate one

Appearances, all it ever seemed
No inspiration never dreamed
Dripping tears all over my head

Changing places with the dead

Hear the earth and feel the sun
Who is the unfortunate one

Scarcely breathing silence
Ordinary day existence
I know that you want her only
So obscured and lonely

Hear the earth and feel the sun
Who is the unfortunate one
