"A Legal Matter"

Visit "A Legal Matter" on MotoLyrics.com

I told you why I changed my mind
I got caught by playing with time
I know you thought you had me nailed
But I freed my head from your guard and rails

Now it's a legal matter baby, you got me on the run
It's a legal matter baby, a legal matter from now on

My mind's lost in a house full of fog
Wedding gowns and catalogues
Kitchen furnishes and houses
Maternity clothes and baby's trousers

It's a legal matter baby, marrying is no fun, a legal matter baby from now on

I told you why I changed my mind
I got bored by playing with time
I know you thought you had me nailed
But I freed my head from your guard and rails

Now it's a legal matter baby, you got me on a runn
It's a legal matter baby, a legal matter from now on

You ain't my first and you ain't my last
I gain and lose my women fast
I never want to make them cry
I just get bored don't ask me why
Just want to keep on doing all the good little things I do
Not work all day in an office just to bring my money back to you
Sorry baby
