"Breakfast At Gardenson's"

In the early morning
As the sun begin to rise
We sit and talk of days gone by
And scenes of paradise

And all I have to
Give to you
All that I can say
Love, please don't go away

Looking out I saw your face
In the garden sun
A face of tales of days gone by
A vision that I've won

And all I have to
Give to you
All that I can say
Love, please don't go away

Days of sweet life blow my memory
Faces one and all
The times of peace and happiness
And brotherhood to all

And all I have to
Give to you
All I have to
Give to you
All I have to
Give to you
All I have to
Give to you
All I have to
Give to you
All I have to Give to you.
