

Troy Cassar-Daley

"Lonesome But Free"

Visit "Lonesome But Free" on MotoLyrics.com

Left my home, in a hail of blows
And I went, as far as I could go
And in my ears, daddy's words sting ring
"If you walk out now, don't come back again"

One day mamma, and the younger ones
Might forgive me, for what I've done
Another year goes by, another season turns
And still this feeling, inside me burns

CHORUS

But I keep moving, from town to town
Coz these ramblin' shoes, don't like slowin' down
I got nobody, I got no place to be
I might be lonesome, but I'm free

I see storm cloud, across the plains
With the window down, I can smell the rain
And those wheat fields, wavin' in the sun
Sing back home, where there's work to be done

CHORUS

"One door closes, the next one opens"
At least that's what they say
And I keep hopin', I'm gonna find that door someday

CHORUS

I might be lonesome, but I'm free

Visit Troy Cassar-Daley page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.