The Sunshine and the Rainfall By Depeche Mode.
-----

Someone will call
Something will fall
And smash on the floor
Without reading the text
Kow what comes next
I've seen it before
And it's painfull

Things must change
We must re-arrange them
Or we will have to estrange them
All that I'm saying
Is the games that we're playing
Over and over again

You're the one I like best
You retain my interest
You're the only one
If it wasn't for you
I don't know what I'd do
Un-predictable like the sun
And the rainfall

Things must change
We must re-arrange them
Or we will have to estrange them
All that I'm saying
Is the games that we're playing
Over and over again
