I've never been so poor.
I bought something I can't afford
Most people can relate with a new car
But this is more value by far.

It's not a material thing,
It's not something i can easily explain.
It's about her i could never forget
Wondering daily how she got me in debt.

Will I ever be the one
And if I was, would I be her last?

What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.

My credit is shot,
But no worries, I've got what I want.
I know that i don't deserve you,
But it's better than being apart.

Maybe someday,
I'll change my ways.
The only thing that separates me from the rest,

Are all of the lies I have told.

Will I ever be the one
And if I was, would I be her last?

What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.

I've never been so poor,
I bought something I can't afford.
Most people can relate with the problems,
But I've got more problems by far.

Will I ever be the one
And if I was, would I be her last?

What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.
What a price I paid, fall in love with you.

What a price I paid.
What a price I paid.
