Can someone tell me
Why this has to be?
Can never see my punk rock babe,
'cause she lives in Jersey.

Foxi Nicki was her name,
I don't care what my friends say,
They think I'm insane.

She lives far away,
In a town I've never seen.
Better live it up,
Before this moments gone away.

She lives far away (far away),
But still I'm writing her again.
Never seen her face,
That's ok she's not to blame.

I'll think of her (think of her)
And wonder if she thinks of me.
She lives in Jersey,
But miles mean nothing to me.

Every night I lie down,
Wondering, wondering.
Why she hasn't mailed me
Or given me a ring?

I become uptight,
Then I stay up all night.
When you get a chance,
Tell me you still love me.
She lives far away,
In a town I've never seen.
Better live it up,
Before this moments gone away.

She lives far away (far away),
But still I'm writing her again.
Never seen her face,
That's ok she's not to blame.

I'll think of her (think of her)
And wonder if she's thinking of me.
She lives in Jersey,
But miles mean nothing to me.

She lives far away,
In a town I've never seen.
Better live it up,
Before this moments gone away.
