Now and forever I promise I will always love you
Now and forever I'm yours

Hands on the clock count the minutes, the hours
Your love has the power, stronger than time or space
You're the rock that I stand on, my anchor
To you I will give all the praise
And there's nothing that I've got to hide
With the power of God on my side

Now and forever I promise I will always love you all my life
One thing I know for sure We'll be together every day I'll love you better more and more
Now and forever I'm yours, now and forever I'm yours

Lost in a dream, under stars, under moonlight
You are the one light leading me out of the dark You're the breath that I breathe, all that I need Nothing will keep us apart and I'm giving you my guarantee
That in you I will always believe, I believe

Now and forever I promise I will always love you all my
One thing I know for sure We'll be together every day I'll love you better more
and more
Now and forever I'm yours, now and forever I'm yours

All that I have I'll give to you
You know that there's nothing that I won't do Whatever it takes, whatever it takes, oh yeah yeah

Now and forever I promise I will always love you Now and forever

Now and forever I promise I will always love you all my
One thing I know for sure We'll be together every day I'll love you better more

and more
Now and forever I'm yours

Now and forever I promise I will always love you all my
One thing I know for sure We'll be together every day I'll love you better more
and more
Now and forever I'm yours

Now and forever I promise I will always love you all my
One thing I know for sure We'll be together every day I'll love you better more
and more
Now and forever I'm yours

Now and forever I promise I will always love you
