This process is becoming difficult with
everyone around me
donating words to my mouth.
i'll make my charitable debut
reading histories of you.
i wish i had the tact.

you're not going to listen to a thing
they say to you.
and you'll perform your exit
for the masses.

This process is becoming difficult with
everyone around me
donating words to my mouth.
a sea of protests, a wooden vehicle.
to write without compromise.
i wish i had the tact

you're not going to listen to a thing
they say to you.
and you'll perform your exit
for the masses.

you're not going to listen to a thing
they say to you.

And Annie, you're getting too close to the edge Annie, you're getting too close to the edge

you're not going to listen to a thing
they say to you.
and you'll perform your exit
for the masses.
