Lets start with me
Write a list pick out everything
Underline all my fine points
While still treating this like a disease

Can't you see
This is part of me
Its everything
That you want to be

So stay with me
Seek though everything
And then we'll see
Its all that you thought it would be

This is only a test run
Just stick around
You'll see nothing has changed
This is not even through yet
The way that your acting is simply insane

Lets start with you
Here's my list
Wouldn't change a thing
Try to find any my fine points
To become what you want me to be

Can't believe
You could look at me
Find a way to destroy my dreams
Its hard to see
Your in front of me

So take a leap
Watch this be all this could be

(So stay)

This is only a test run
Just stick around
You'll see nothing has changed

This is not even through yet
The way that your acting is simply insane

The way that your acting is simply insane

So please stay (So please stay)
Cause I know that you need me (So please stay)
And you'll follow me into the flame (So please stay)
So I hope you can trust me (So please stay)
Do your best not to put out the flame (So please stay)

Cause this isn't about me (So please stay)
Its about what I wanted to be (So please stay)
Cause I know your the only (So please stay)

And I promise that we'll never change, change
And I promise that we'll never change, change
And I promise that we'll never change, change

This is only a test run (change, change)
Just stick around
You'll see nothing has changed (change, change)
This is not even through yet
The way that your acting is simply insane (change, change)

This is only a test run (change, change)
Just stick around
You'll see nothing has changed (change, change)
This is not even through yet
The way that your acting is simply insane
