I open my eyes
To see her face
In a daze we engaged
Tonight I slept about an hour
To fill her needs and desires

Chorus
One more night in California
One more night with you
One more night
But she's alright [she's alright]
One more night [yeah]
One more night in California

Dom dom dom baby one more night
Dom dom dom baby one more night

I need to catch a ride
To the south side
I grabbed a patty and a shake
I felt the earthquake
I jumped in the cab for LAX
I flipped him a tip
hey man!
Then I split

One more night in California
One more night with you
One more night

But she's alright
She's alright
One more night [yeah]
One more night in California
Night in California
Night in California
Night in California

dom dom dom baby one more night dom dom baby one more night
I opened my eyes to see her face

But she's alright
she's alright
One more night [yeah]
one night in California

She's alright
She's alright
One more night..yeahhh
One more night in California
Night in California
Night in California
Night in California
