Translated:

If I fly high in the air with my wings hidden in my heart
I can meet myself in the yesterday that I was about to forget

I don't need any memories
I want only one second that is in front of me
We are now alive
At the risk of everything

We're looking for the present that excites me
As we keep ourselves alive nobody can stop us

* Wild wing boys
Soar into the sky with the legendary wings
Wild wing boys
Beyond the burning sea and sky
Wild wing boys
Stare at the stars fading out
Wild wing boys
Feel emotions for tomorrow and take off

Brightness will spread out across the darkness right away
So, I'll stand against the pain that burns in my heart
And I'll smile

Nobody knows tomorrow
Nobody can promise
I want to keep myself just like a sharp knife

People fly far up in the sky in their dreams
Higher and higher
Beyond eternity

Wild wing boys
Spread the wings hidden in your heart
Wild wing boys
Cut through darkness faster than light
Wild wing boys
Stare at yesterday disappearing
Wild wing boys
Hold emotions for tomorrow and take off
