When John the baby was born,
he gave a gift to the world.
King of makes you wonder,
what would've happened, if he'd been a girl.
He grew up to play music,
and he was in a band.
They were called the Beatles,
England was their homeland.
One day they came to America,
In a boat, in a plane, in an underwater train.
It didn't really matter,
They made it here, anyway.
I can say from the Beatles,
we have learned a lot.
No matter what you say,
they played great on the spot.
And hey, John Lennon,
you came to us in an underwater train...
Mr. Lennon, won't you come back to us again?
One fateful day,
on December 8th, of 1980.
We all looked up to heaven,
just to talk to you.
Hey now, John Lennon,
you came to us in an underwater train...
Mr. Lennon, won't you come back to us again?
