The sunset's followed by the nighttime, Maybe there'll be blue skies the next day,
You win or lose, it doesn't matter anymore,
Life isn't always lived some special way,

I know I've shared the tears and lies, pain and fears.
Experiencing everything is good 'cuz you don't know when the end is near.
Baby, please tell me what in the world to do, I'll just stay right here and see my life through, Hold me close and never let me go.

Live the way you want, here with me, no one tellin' you
what to do,
Go outside yourself, and take a breath,
Inhale some of the best days of your life,
It's up to you.

Be my one and only one forever, never let me trail one step behind.
Keep me close, never let me out of your sight. Our love could be gone at the blink of an eye, So be true to me and I'll give you everything a guy could possibly want, I'll be true right back to you; Our love contributed equally out, Bring me up, don't ever put me down, You're all I think about when you're not around,
Hold me close and never let me go.

Live the way you want, here with me, no one tellin' you
what to do,
Go outside yourself, and take a breath,
Inhale some of the best days of your life,
It's up to you.

I hope we live our lives every day, oh in a heartbeat,
I see now how I love you every second of that time,
Be my boy and I'll stay your girl all throughout this crazy little world,

Your smilin' face shining forever, Love someone else, I will never,
Hold me close and never let me go.

Live the way you want, here with me, no one tellin' you
what to do,
Go outside yourself, and take a breath,
Inhale some of the best days of your life,
Itc
