This is the story of your life
One more chapter I write tonight
I'm waking up away from you
But you can listen
I wanted you to hear this
I guess you know the words still cut the deepest part
inside
To remind us we're alive
So save yourself tonight

And I'm waiting because I want you back
Because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up
And I'm waiting because I want you back
Because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up

And this is the story of my life
The chapter is right here tonight
I'm giving up, I'm over you
Why can't you listen
I needed you to hear this
I guess you know the words still cut the deepest part
To remind me we're alive
So save yourself tonight

And I'm waiting because I want you back
Because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up
And I'm waiting because I want you back
Because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up

And I'm waking up
And I'm waking up
And I'm waking up

And I'm waiting
This is all I could stand for

Now I guess that it's finally time to wake up
And get up right now
Because I'm still waiting for you,
For you
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight

And I'm waiting because I want you back
Because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up
So take these dreams and wake me up

And I'm waiting because I want you back
So take these dreams and wake me up

Because I want you back
Because I want you back
