Seeing things I've never seen In this dull place of conformity Couldn't give you any reasons Just make it what you want it to be Chorus:

It may seem that it's all right Everything's just black and white Some things just never change That's why...

That's why...
I gotta get outta here
Look around me I see people
Walkin' up and down the street
I turn the music loud
And they're dancin' to a different beat
You can go on living by
What other people have to say
Or you can change your life
By doing what you want to anyway
Chorus:

Some things just never change
That's why...
I gotta get outta here
Seeing things I've never seen
In this dull place of conformity
Couldn't give you any reasons
Just make it what you want it to be
Oh I gotta get outta here
Yeah I gotta get outta here

It may seem that it's all right Everything's just black and white
