A wise man was telling stories to me
About the places he had been to
And the things that he had seen

A quiet voice is singing something to me
An age old song 'bout the home of the brave
And this land here of the free
One time, one night in America

A lady dressed in white with the man she loves
Standing along the side of their pickup truck
A shot rang out in the night just when everything seemed right
Another headline written down in America

The guy that lived next door in three O five Took the kids to the park and disappeared 'bout half past nine
Who will ever know how much she loved them so
That dark night alone in America

A quiet voice is singing something to me
An age old song 'bout the home of the brave
And this land here of the free
One time one night in America

Four small boys playing ball in the parking lot
A preacher, a teacher, and the other became a cop
A car skidded into the rain making the last little one a saint
One more light goes out in America

A young girl tosses a coin in the wishing well
She hopes for a Heaven while for her there's just this Hell
She gave away her life to become somebody's wife
Another wish unanswered in America

People having so much faith
Die too soon while all the rest come late
We write a song that no one sings

On a cold black stone where a lasting peace will finally bring

The sunlight plays upon my window pane
I wake up to a world that's still the same
My father said to be strong that a good man could never do wrong
In a dream I had last night in America

A wise man was telling stories to me
And the things that he had seen

A quiet voice is singing something to me
An age old song 'bout the home of the brave
And this land here of the free
One time, one night in America
One time, one night in America
One time, one night in America
