"Run Away With You"

I would've run away with you
If I hadn't asked what I should do
Believe me what I say is true
I would've run, run away with you

I would've known it from the start
If I hadn't listened to my heart
You'll never know but this is true
I would have run, run away with you, run away with you

I was afraid what they might say
When I could have turned the other way
You've got to know this love is true
I would've run, run away with you, run away with you

Run away with you
Run away with you
Run away with you
