

Antigone Rising

"Open Hearts And Doors"

I
I've had a change of heart
This one's come to say that it is awake
In
In this time alone
I have come to know You'd be fine with one foot in and one to go

Chorus:
If you
you don't know by now Then you
you don't know by now about Open hearts and doors

Once
I was the big mistake
That one was hard to shake

Forgiveness draws its first breath with hesitation

(chorus)

Bridge:
So I lead with borrowed light into your darkest night where you're still afraid of me Trade the sadness on your face with me there in its place
and set us free.

(chorus twice)

I
I've had a change of heart
This one's come to say
that it is awake
