By the way I am leaving today
Cause my heart told me go
I thought you should know

I'm afraid that it's not very special
For you to want me
Just cause you lonely

And I'm sick of wasting time
And you won't make me cry

I realized we got caught up in a moment
And got carried away
I realize that it is just another moment
When everything changed

Loves a lie that lives in fiction
Cause me getting hurt
Is your favorite addiction

So crack my chest and leave me to bleed
I'm not what you want
Just what you need

And I'm sick of wasting time
And you won't make me cry

I realized we got caught up in a moment
And got carried away
I realize that it is just another moment
When everything changed

And you won't waste my time
And you won't see me cry

I realized we got caught up in a moment
And got carried away
I realize that it is just another moment
When everything changed
Cause everything's changed
Yeah, everything's changed
