All your bags are finally packed
Talking about this for so long
And now the date's arrived
Time for you to be free
Move your life out east
Where no one knows your name

And now you're writing letters home to only to her
Never thinking twice, pretending I don't exist

Promises you made to me
Were they just secrets to keep?
Because I never told anyone
How's the coast line without me?
Does the scene treat you well?
Cause I heard that you're doing fine

So you're on your own now
Got away from here
Small town life was never right for you
Is it all that you wanted?
Is it all that you needed?
Did the drama find you out east?

Cause now she's wearing your ring, changed her name for good
And said your vows in front of everyone

Promises you made to me
Were they just secrets to keep?
Because I never told anyone
How's the coast line without me?
Does the scene treat you well?
I heard that you're doing just fine

It's the things I never said that will hurt me the most
That I never got the chance for your lips to taste mine
That I dream of your fingers tangled inside the palm of my hand
And I hate that you're doing fine

Promises you made to me
Were they just secrets to keep?
Because I never told anyone (Now I'll tell everyone)
How's the coast line without me?
Does the scene treat you well?
Cause I hate-

Promises you made to me
Were they just secrets to keep?
Because now I'll tell everyone
How's the coast line without me?
Does the scene treat you well?
Cause I hate that you're doing fine
Scene treat you well?
I'm not doing fine
Scene treat you well
I heard that you're doing fine
