I hate this city and I hate its lights,
I hate the money and I hate the power
I hate the rich and I hate the famous
I hate the modern buildings
I hate the modern music
I hate the modern life
I hate the television and
I hate the fucking radio

Hate is the only thing that keeps me going,
without hate I'd be like you and
I'd hate myself for being you

I hate Turkey and other all-in holidays
I hate looking rich but living so cheap
I hate every celebrity and their plastic surgery
I hate their clothes and their plastic jewelry
I hate the life people see on TV or in magazines
I hate the life everybody wants to live
I hate the modern man and wife
I hate the fucking modern life

Hate is the only thing that keeps me going,
without hate I'd be like you and
I'd hate myself for being you
