Out tonight, out into that social scene again
It'll be alright, if you can make your dream come true, you win

Again you try, another case of do or die
Again tonight, you never stop to ask yourself why

Cause you've become mister personality
You live your life so wild and free

Sitting at the bar, acting like some kind of star
You're not very far, when you stop to think of where you are

All the girls, hanging round, just trying to take you Around the world, if they only knew, they might forsake you

Cause you've become mister personality
You live your life so wild and free
But you've lost the perfect opportunity
To live your life as it should be

You were always the one who said he's got it made
There were always the dues you never had to pay
But I can see its coming to an end
So you better prepare to fall my friend

Guys like you, they always know just what to do Its so far from you, the words you said, the meanings untrue

Cause you've become mister personality
You live your life so wild and free
But you've lost the perfect opportunity
To live your life as it should be
