"I Was Thinking Of You"

I won't say I'm sorry
I don't apologize
Can't say I regret it
I'm not tellin' lies
He meant nothing to me
Just a physical thing
But its all over now
Stop worrying
I know it's no consolation
But I sear it's true
When I make love to him
I was thinking of you
I can't understand you're jealous
But he didn't touch my heart
No - he wasn't better
Not even in the good parts
I love your sweetness
But I'm not satisfied
So I went lookin' for somthing to fill
The emptiness inside
