Darlin it's time to wake up and just listen to the tender tune those little songbirds sing Take care of that sound, put it in your heart paint a picture forever of a day like this The sentiments talk to me
Well, look at the world, all the people around I wonder what they've found That make them keep going on Life passes by like a boat on the river so reach out and grab it now before it's gone It's Tuesday afternoon and the sun has been shining' on the world today
All the people passin' us by in the street they can't hide their love anyway Now maybe you're lost but I know that you soon will be found by your self and then you'll go your own way I hope that I always will be by your side though you're dazed 'n' confused and don't know what to say
