

Lonely Hearts, The "Good Intentions"

Visit "Good Intentions" on MotoLyrics.com

This ain't the first time that I've been around
Don't hate yourself on my account
'Cause I ain't gonna be around that long
And there's no shame in showing how you feel
Honey, it could take a million years
To see where we went wrong
But I'm okay 'cause I'm not the only one
Who feels the way
In a world of aggression and depression
We're the same
So will you come to me?
And I will come to you
To see that we don't work together
And when you come to me
I always come to you
'Cause we were meant to ruin each other
Good intentions flew right out the door
When our troubles hit the floor
I guess we were just young like that
Substitutions of the cheaper kind
Honey, you can keep in mind

All the sins on my behalf
I'm okay 'cause I'm not the only one
Who feels this way
In a world of aggression and depression
We're the same
So will you come to me?
And I will come to you
To see that we don't work together
And when you come to me
I always come to you
'Cause we were meant to ruin each other's lives
And you found your way to be happy
And as of yet, I've not found mine
So won't you head on down
Back across that Texas line
So will you come to me?
And I will come to you
To see that we don't work together
And when you come to me
I always come to you
'Cause we were meant to ruin each other
We were meant to ruin each other
We were meant to ruin each other's lives

Visit Lonely Hearts, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

