and I'm ready with the woofas that'll flip your block and I got the tick and a machete for the niggas actin' if you wanna bring your boys better bring the toys better bring the noise I'm a pump both up with ammunition bodies I be hittin when I get to spittin everybody shoulda broke and ain't nobody listen so now I...

roll and 24s when I'm on your tip they don't know who I am ain't no body talkin shit tell me when did they ever think that I was a hoe cause I got killas with me crips, bloods, g's and folks and we be focused on the paper when we be up in the kitchen when we thinkin about the money on the steady come up and I got the niggas that be ready for whatever with a whole war chest if a nigga run up ak 47, desert eagle, sk, mac 11 for the niggas that'll try to run up

sleeping
cause you know I'm creepin on ah come up

mother-fuckas actin like they don't know me but they know just who I am, I'm a mother-fuckin killa cause I'm a killer a mass murda the realest nigga that you ever heard of

and I wouldnt want to be you got the desert eagle when I'm rollin in the regal and I'm lookin at you evil through the eye of a needle not a misdemeanor but a murder with a millimeter feel the heat of Twista when I'm bustin at your whip I get a burglar when I be comin for your shit I'm a get you for your goods when I run up in your crib tell me where your jewelry at where your safe don't make me have to smack this ugly bitch in her face is it behind the portrait or is it in your floor just let me know so that I can hit it up cause I gots to go cause I gotta throw it so I had to lick on them niggas cause it used to be that if I had to hit em imma get em never ride a burgundy lamborghini murcielago through the city because I know that'll kill em averagin a 100 yards a game my competition better back up I'm the e running back niggas that ain't ready get the machete for the lyrical jason of rap imma keep comin back

[Twista]

the lyrical assassin the pocket I got in I be attackin the track and I got a package of the good see a legendary representa for the city cause I put it down ever since I been rappin in the hood 17 years of goin and flowin and showin these niggas when it come to beaten me nobody could I was spittin venom ever sense the days ugk been rappin
and talkin about puttin diamonds on the wood pullin up in a old cadillac before I got some thangs and I got that gwap and the numba one spot now I ride a range and because I spit that crack is the reason we got some change and if we ain't makin money off rap then we got them thangs

got the 8 dollar hollas two for 15's a 4 and a split a nine piece so you can hit the whole brick how I win it by makin a 100 every summer pullin up in the hummer can make a nigga so sick how we constantly come up with hits and steady be gettin fans is only because a nigga flows sick showin no debate everybody know I'm great any muthafuckas that hate can suck my dick

[hook: T-Pain]
