Well, the time to take control is now.
We need to step back, and waste away our lives
somehow.
You think that it is worth it,
I think you may be wrong.
Too bad about your problems, you were doing so well.
So long.

And I know I shouldn't let it get me down
But it's such a hard thing to get around, and
Ah, it doesn't make a difference.
Oh, it doesn't mean a thing.

And now our lives are spinning around,
We fell off from our crosses,
now we nail it to the ground.
It's not worth fighting over,
It's not worth dying for.
You say I'm indecisive,
I've never been so sure.

And I know I shouldn't let it get me down
But it's such a hard thing to get around, and
Ah, it doesn't make a difference.
Oh, it doesn't mean a thing.

This world troubles me.
There's nothing I can do about it,
this world troubles me.
