"Sometimes"

Sometimes I feel so alone
Sometimes I just wanna stay at home
Sometimes my eyes are filled with tears
Sometimes Im paralyzed with fears
But I cant stop theres something inside That makes me keep going that makes me keep trying
Sometimes when Life has let you down
And your friends are nowhere to be found
You cant help but ask the question why Did we come here just to suffer and to die
But you know thats not true you can feel it in your heart
Its just lifes illusions that keep us apart
Sometimes when youre up against the wall
You will hear a voice inside you call
This is not the way its supposed to end
Open your eyes and find a friend
And our dreams will never stop unless you want them to
If you listen to your heart youll know just what to do
Sometimes the truth becomes so clear
And you understand just why were here
