I wanna know why you wanna kill me
Why dont you die
For telling the truth and trying to be free
Why dont you die
Why your lack of values means I have to cry
Why dont you die
No fucking self-respect and I wanna know why Why dont you die why dont you die why dont you die
You dont care whats righth or wrong youll do anything for money Mass murder for the sake of greed you think its fucking funny
Why dont you die
You fill the world with poison every time you take a breath
Youre always there on my TV merchandising death Toxic waste dump for a brain youre so glamorous and cool Always dressed in the latest styles a cute little fascist tool Theres no excuse for your ignorance youve had your fucking chance Youll be righth there on the killing floor when death does its final dance
Why dont you die
