"Robot Song"

I met you on the county line
You said come with me, we can hop the line

Rules are rules that were broken by you
As I sat by and watched on the TV tube

Flesh is flesh as night is a thief
He's creeping in the shadows just to stare at the blank concrete

I see your boy, he's over at the bar with his friends
Laughing, drinking and he's having a good time

And what do you hear if you're a monster at the end of the year?

The words on your lips, muffled by, his hands on your hips

And what do you hear if you're a monster at the end of the year?

I kissed those lips, drunk in pity, the wine made you wity

And skies and trees, houses and buildings

Scenery in this masquerade

Dry words spill from your lips

Cracked from time and loneliness

Foul language spoils your tongue
As you told me about your situation

Best friends are balanced on a dime
And they whisper in your ear, 'I don't have the time'

Flesh is flesh as night is a thief
He's creeping in the shadows just to stare at the blank
concrete

I see your boy, he's over at the bar with his friends
Laughing, drinking and he's having a good time

And what do you hear if you're a monster at the end of the year?

The words on your lips, muffled by, his hands on your
hips

And what do you hear if you're a monster at the end of the year?

I kissed those lips, drunk in pity, the wine made you
wity

And skies and trees, houses and buildings

Scenery in this masquerade

Dry words spill from your lips

Cracked from time and loneliness
