I feel like I am falling
Cause you set me up last night
Didn't know that I was so blind
I just wanna cry

And I left you, I forgot you
Wanna feel alive tonight

No more tears when you tell me a lie
No more tears when I look into your eyes
No more tears I don't wanna know why
I lost you, I lost you
[repeat]

But you won't see me crying
Not a single tear from my eyes baby
I will stand up and glow
Give away all my fears and I will go

And I left you, I forgot you
Wanna feel alive tonight

No more tears when you tell me a lie
No more tears when I look into your eyes
No more tears I don't wanna know why
I lost you, I lost you
[repeat]

No more tears when you tell me a lie
Oh baby, oh baby
[repeat]

No more tears when you tell me a lie
No more tears when I look into your eyes
No more tears I don't wanna know why
I lost you, I lost you
[repeat]
