Sing another song for me
Fill your lungs with history
Heavy feel don't bite your tongue
Easy go not easy come

Trouble don't you knock upon this door

Heavy heart some years ago
Ruinaton, broken soul
Emanate a sweeter sound
Legacy don't bring us down - no

Trouble don't you knock upon this door no more
Once you get it started it will never ever stop

Sing another song for me
Fill your lungs with history
Emanate a sweeter sound
Legacy don't bring us down

Trouble don't you knock upon this door no more
Once you get it started it will never ever stop
Once you get it started it will never ever
It's never gonna stop

You cannot erase what's burning in your soul
You can never start over
You cannot erase what's burning your soul
You can never start over again
You cannot erase what's burning your soul
You can never start over again

Trouble don't you knock upon this door no more
Once you get it started it will never ever stop
Once you get it started it will never ever
It's never gonna stop

Sing another song for me
Fill your lungs with history
Heavy feel don't bite your tongue
Easy go not easy come
