Your love is a mystery
On the wind it blows
Schizophrenic symmetry
Down the roads, down the roads I know
Terrorizing this lovely town
As it blows our lives around
We are but leaves
On the breeze
Drift with the flowers
And say
You won't go away
Because I love you
I love you
Every day
It may not seem this way
But I love you
I love you
Every day
And the summer rain won't wash this love away
mmmm

Outbursts of heart
The black caviar
Explode these tiny stars
Upon your tongue
Coin these words
Tongues tied together
You say you won't go away
Because I love you
I love you
Every day
It may not seem this way
But I love you
I love you
Every day
And the summer rains won't wash this love away

I just poured my heart out
Did I go too far now?
Too far now

You won't go away
Because I love you
I love you
Every day
It may not seem this way
But I love you
I love you
Every day
And the summer rain won't wash this love away

Won't wash this love away
Won't wash this love away
