

Lord Dog Bird, The "The Shedding Path"

Somewhere long ago on the Shedding path
In the infinite land that is your mind
There was blood in your mouth
And a song was sprung
From all you see

A voice rang out from the earth
Bearing the weight of all our sins
Singing, you alone cannot be tried
You alone cannot be tried
For we are one

Stand with me; forget from what you have run
One to one together in the sun
When the spirit is gripping you
And all that's left to be said is on your tongue

Set a table for death
Make the path straight
Make way, for the way
Set a table for death
Make the path straight
Make way, for the way
