Tell my family I had to leave.
I'm going away.
Tell my friends for me.
They'd all agree
That I gotta get out of here.

I'm gonna sail that boat right into the sun,
Cause everybody knows that's how it's done.
Now don't you cry and don't you wait,
If I meet my end, well, well that'd be my fate.
[x2]

Give my things away.
Forget my name.
I'm leaving today.
If you see me again,
It'll be my skeleton,
Cause I won't be back alive.

You are as soft as a feather.
You are as gorgeous as ever.
You are exactly what I should want.
But I don't want you.
No I don't want you
So I'm going
Away

Yeah...

I wouldn't survive one more day...

I'm gonna sail that boat right into the sun,
Cause everybody knows that's how it's done.
Now don't you cry and don't you wait,
If I meet my end, well, well that'd be my fate.
