"Give Your Heart"

You say you are in love with me,
But I can't afford to throw my heart away
I need someone who's heart I can steal
I need something that I can feel
The burnin' in my heart, knowin' that this one's real
These days when I will sit alone with you,
You make me smile more than I want you to I'm holding back, can't let it get away
Can't explain what makes these feelings stay
Give your heart away, give your heart away,
Give your heart, and I'll give mine
Take my breath away, take my breath away,
Take my breath away this time
I've seen a hundred million broken hearts
More than once, I'll admit I played the part
I can see you commin' onto me
You know it takes a lot to see
The beating of my heart, faith doesn't come easy
Give your heart away, give your heart away,
Give your heart, and I'll give mine
Take my breath away, take my breath away,

Take my breath away this time

Here we go runnin' down this road again

There you go telling me we're more than friends

This time I might take you home with me

You'll find I might even start to see

That somethin' in your eyes, take me now and set me
free

Give your heart away, give your heart away,

Give your heart, and I'll give mine

Take my breath away, take my breath away,

Take my breath away this time
