Days Keep gettin' longer

Trying to make my way to a better start

This hole keeps gettin' deeper

Everyday I'm gone it's tearin' me apart

They say that home is where the heart is

Well, this heart is lost without a home

It seems my mind is all in peices

Can't get no peace of mind from all that I been shown

But I will get by

Ain't gonna' change my mind, don't you even try

I will get by

I'm gonna' shake these blues, I'm gonna' learn how to fly

I will get by, I will get by

Least this ain't for nothin'

Now you can find my name after I been gone

Oh, but ain't that somethin'

Just when you think you're right, you realize you're wrong

But I will get by

Through every endless day and every sleepless night

I will get by

I'll put my back to the wall and I will win this fight

I will get by, I will get by

SOLO

Days are gettin' longer

Tryin' to make my way to a better start

This hole is growin' deeper

Every day I'm gone it's tearin' me apart

But I will get by

Ain't gonna' change my mind, don't you even try

I will get by

I'm gonna' shake these blues, I'm gonna' learn how to fly

I will get by

Through every endless day and every sleepless night

I will get by

I'll put my back to the wall and I will win this fight

I will get by, I will get by

(on my own, all alone, without you by my side I'll get by,
I'll get by
