"Holiday Right Tonight" jahoo take a look at you tonight your smile is tight I don't want you girl to dim the light it is alright for me

I want to see tonight
'cause I can look and see and things will be alright
there will be other girls and other boys
and other ones
but not as right tonight

jahoo peekaboo come out and play it's holiday
you don't have to hide among the shades the best of babes for me

and it's oh so hard to be the lonely one and it's oh so hard when all the girlies run but I don't want you girl to dim the light the time is right

lights on rockababe bring out the dead you shake your head come on and let me guide you to our bed the lights are red for you 'cause you look blue tonight but we can look and see
and other ones in other beds
tonight
