that day seems the same as now in my eyes i never left that town the feeling that i had back then is the same one that will never end lost to the river lost to the roads lost to the people that i used to know lost to the pleasures and the benefits never really found what good it did iâ€™d take you there but i know youâ€™d judge iâ€™ve come a long way from where i was iâ€™m not asking if iâ€™ll ever be enough so donâ€™t tell me the truth cause youâ€™re hard to trust

â€¦from the winds to the eastâ€¦
to hell below
to hell below

had a little sister that she didnâ€™t know hadnâ€™t seen mom since she was 6 years old only the reason i knew is cause her little brother told me didnâ€™t stop me i always wanted the glory

itâ€™s a long way from where i was donâ€™t ask me if youâ€™ll ever be enough iâ€™ll tell you the truth but iâ€™m hard to trust iâ€™ll tell you the truth but iâ€™m hard to trust they taught me so well how to be hard to trust

to hell below
to hell below
