Absolutely nothing's changed

This is my heart talking

It's time to face reality

This spell I'm under can't last much longer

Any fool can see

You come here with your promises

But I remember all the lies

I bought the laughter, happy ever after

How could I be so blind, so blind

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed

You play with my emotions

I'll live to fight another day

Iâ€™m bruised but I ainâ€™t broken

I ain't broken

Now you say you're sorry

For everything you put me through

You wanna make up, I just gotta wake up

It's the same old you

The same old you

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed

You play with my emotions

I'll live to fight another day

I'm bruised but I ain't broken

Ain't broken

Ooh I've been dreaming but it's over now (bad dreams are over now)

I'm gonna rise up, rise above all the troubles and tears

I'm down but I ain't out

Play with my emotions

I maybe bruised, I ain't broken

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed

At last my eyes are open

I'm gonna live to fight another day

I maybe bruised but I ain't broken, ain't broken

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed

Abolutely nothing

I'll live to fight another day

I maybe bruised but I ain't broken

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed

Abolutely nothing

I'm gonna live to fight another day

I maybe bruised but I ain't broken

'Cause absolutely nothing's changed
