Should you stay, should you go

You're beggining to see

I go hot, I go cold

It's just the devil in me

You've got to understand I am in love with a beautiful man

So if you're feeling insecure you've really no cause to be

I want you near me, don't you run away

I just got used to having you around

I want you near me, come on here and stay

Don't let me down

You're so good with your hands

To help me with a hook or a zip

Indispensable that's what you are

For the occasional kiss

I'm only playing games with you, I can't be nice without being cruel

I know it's not fair, but I make the rules

I want you near me, don't you run away

I just got used to having you around

I want you near me, come on here and stay

Don't let me down

All I want, I've decided

Is your attention undivided
