Lyrics by Alanis Morissette

After a year like this one
I'm surprised I did not hate your guts
And after a year like this one
I'm surprised I still love music just as much
After a year like this one
I'm surprised I did not eat my arm
After a year like this one
I'm sorry if I'm not cordial to everyone

After a year like this one
I'm surprised I am convinced at all
And after a year like this one
I do not roll my eyes at the cynical
After a year like this one
I can't help but wonder how they've been
And after a year like this one
I think I'll leave it all to my next of kin

After a year like this one
I'm surprised we're all not weeping drunks
And after a year like this one
I want you to choose the restaurant
And after a year like this one
I'll need a good whole sixteen months alone
After a year like this one
I think I'll make the west coast beaches my new home.
